"Kulage House"

This house was built in 1856 by Matthew Backer, who purchased the ground from Benjamin Soulard in the year 1841.

In 1934 the property was given to the Sisters of St. Joseph by Theresa Kulage daughter of Jos. J. Backer.

Mrs. Kulage died on May 12, 1934.

She was a very prominent and charitable woman. Pope Pius XI. conferred the title and dignity on her "Lady of the Holy Sepulchre", because of her many benefactions.

Three story brick with false mansard-stone lintels.

Information: McCune Gill and Mr. Edw. V.P. Schneiderhahn

EUGENE L. PLEITSCH.
